

Palm Beach Fete

Adds $17,000 to the Hoover Fund

Miss Cora G. Shields and Mr. P. A. B. Widener 2d Win Prizes.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PALM BEACH, Fla., March 8.—At the entertainment given last night in Coconut Grove for the Hoover child relief fund $17,000 was realized. A big cinema dance and Russian auction were features of the programme.

From the sale of tables the receipts were $4,000, and $2,000 more was added from sale of tickets, while the auction of gifts that had been donated by the shops here brought $3,500. After the auction contributions were made by Mrs. Florence Ziegfeld, Jr., Benjamin J. Rosenblatt, Edward T. Stotesbury and Earle P. Charlton of $1,000 each. Messrs. Adolph Lewisohn, Franklin Simon, John Shepard, Jr., and Joseph Paterno each contributed $250, while contributions of $100 each were made by Mrs. Samuel Bloomingdale, Mrs. Ittison and Mrs. Louis S. Levy.

The remainder was raised by means of bidding for dances—twelve men bidding for the privilege of choosing their own partners for a dancing contest, for which a prize was awarded. The contest was won by Miss Cora G. Shields and Mr. P. A. B. Widener 2d in the contest of twelve couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte gave a luncheon at the Beach Club for Dr. George T. Harding and his brother, Dr. George T. Harding, Jr., and Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman. Mrs. James Deering, Mrs. Raymond Lyman Moad and Mr. Arthur Williams. Other hosts there were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Widener, Mrs. John Francis Harris, Mrs. J. Lorimer Worden and Mr. Byron Goldsmith.

AIKEN. S. C., March 8.—Mr. Alfonso de Navarro, of New York, has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan at Calico cottage.

Messrs. F. Ambrose Clark, Thomas Hightcock, William Walter Phelps, William C. Ladden, Mr. C. Cooley and Miss Claudia Phelps followed the hounds to cover in a chase beginning at the Pond. Miss Anna Sands of New York and Mrs. George Hadden are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin at Hoplands.

CAMDEN. The Minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varcin gave a dinner last night at Rauscher's for the Spanish Ambassador and Senora Ariano and the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Le Breton.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin G. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Newcomb have arrived from New York and are at the Kirkwood.

TO AID BELGIAN SISTERS. For the Belgian Missionary Sisters of 47 West Forty-seventh street there will be a concert this afternoon at Mrs. Sanford's, 9 East Seventy-second street, given by the Duchess de Richelieu, soprano; Rafael Diaz, Metropolitan Opera tenor, and Mrs. Daniel Didd. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. A. Leo Everett, 120 East Sixty-seventh street, or at Mrs. Sanford's home.

The concert is being given under the patronage of the Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne.

SOCIAL NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. John J. C. Humbert have returned from Miami and are at the Vanderbilt prior to going to their home, Afterglow, at Madison, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Owens came from Marion, Ohio, and will be at the Hotel Astor several days.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK.

Mrs. Amos Cotting Schermerhorn has come from Tuxedo Park to the Ritz-Carlton to pass a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Williams of Stoneridge, Stonington, Conn. Mrs. Charles Goddard Weld and Miss E. P. Train of Boston also are there.

Mrs. Charles J. Welch gave a luncheon party yesterday in the Ritz-Carlton. Her guests included Mrs. Edwin Gould, Mrs. Clarence C. Chapman, Mrs. Henry Shelton and Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady.

Mrs. J. Bruce Ismay and her daughter, Miss Evelyn C. Ismay, who arrived from England last week on board the Cedric, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish at 50 Fifth avenue. They will remain here a month.

Mr. Wadsworth R. Lewis, after passing some weeks in Palm Beach, has returned to 25 West Fifty-second street. He will sail for Europe in April and will make an automobile tour of England and the Continent.

Mrs. Burke Roche, who entertained a dinner party at her house last night, will start for Europe, accompanied by her son, Mr. Maurice Burke Roche, on April 14, to pass the summer.

Mrs. Charles G. Ayres of 55 West Fifty-fifth street will go next Monday to Atlantic City, where she will remain several weeks.

Mrs. George S. Scott is convalescent at her home, 420 Park avenue, after injury received from a fall a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Morris, Mrs. Richard M. Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amory have come from Boston to the Belmont.

Mrs. Russell Perkins has returned from Venice, Italy, and is at the Ritz for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Duncan and their son, John F. Duncan, have gone to Palm Beach.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt will return this week from the West Indies.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jones Colford, Jr., went to Aiken, S. C., on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Reed left New York for Palm Beach on last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew will return from St. Augustine on March 15.

WASHINGTON.

President Harding's father, Dr. George T. Harding, and his brother, Dr. George T. Harding, Jr., who were at the White House for the inauguration, have returned to Ohio.

The Minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varcin gave a dinner last night at Rauscher's for the Spanish Ambassador and Senora Ariano and the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Le Breton.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin G. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Newcomb have arrived from New York and are at the Kirkwood.

TO AID BELGIAN SISTERS. For the Belgian Missionary Sisters of 47 West Forty-seventh street there will be a concert this afternoon at Mrs. Sanford's, 9 East Seventy-second street, given by the Duchess de Richelieu, soprano; Rafael Diaz, Metropolitan Opera tenor, and Mrs. Daniel Didd. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. A. Leo Everett, 120 East Sixty-seventh street, or at Mrs. Sanford's home.

The concert is being given under the patronage of the Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne.

SOCIAL NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. John J. C. Humbert have returned from Miami and are at the Vanderbilt prior to going to their home, Afterglow, at Madison, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Owens came from Marion, Ohio, and will be at the Hotel Astor several days.

MRS. MC CONIHE'S REMARRIAGE REVEALS FACT OF A DIVORCE

Former Wife of Warren McConihe Now Bride of Barrett Andrews.

Mrs. Margaret Schneider McConihe, who was associated with women of prominence in society in important war relief projects from the opening of the war, was married Monday to Mr. Barrett Andrews, a New York publisher.

The announcement yesterday of their wedding was the first intimation to many of their friends that she and her former husband, Mr. Warren McConihe, a lawyer and a former judge, had been divorced.

Mr. McConihe and his bride sailed yesterday for Europe on board the Carmania and will spend several weeks in England and France. They will live in New York.

The divorce of Mr. and Mrs. McConihe was granted in Minnola recently, the court appointing Mr. McConihe guardian of the only child of his marriage with Margaret Schneider, Picheo Warren McConihe, now 12 years old.

Mr. McConihe is a son of Mrs. Isaac McConihe of 440 Park avenue. He is a grandson of the late Joseph Mabbitt Warren and is a cousin of Messrs. Whitney, Lloyd and George Henry Warren and of Mrs. William Starr Miller. The uncle, Mrs. Robert Goetz also was his cousin.

Mrs. McConihe and Mr. Andrews were married last Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joseph Mabbitt Warren at 294 Claremont avenue, Montclair, N. J., by the Rev. Dr. Cook, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Montclair.

Only members of her family were present. She was one of the founders of the Committee for Free Milk for France and was president of the organization for some time. She was awarded the Medaille de Reconnaissance from the French Government and was also decorated by the Queen of the Belgians.

In addition to being engaged in the publishing business at 9 East Fortieth street, Mr. Andrews is a director of the Gramatan National Bank and of the New York company. He was associated in business for some time with Miss Natalie Talmadge, youngest of the three sisters who are prominent on the screen. Keaton is convalescing after a fracture of a leg received while working on a picture a short time ago.

It will be the first time in three years that Miss Talmadge and Mr. Keaton, whose engagement was announced a few weeks ago, have seen each other. They met in Los Angeles when Miss Talmadge was general secretary to Roscoe (Patty) Arbuckle and Keaton was supporting the comedian. Then Miss Talmadge came East with her sisters, the Misses Norma and Constance, and has remained here since. Though no definite date has been set, it is expected that the wedding will take place in June.

AMONG THE PLAYGOERS. Mrs. Bradish Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., attended last night's performance of "Romance" in the Playhouse.

In the audience that saw "Miss Lulu Bett" at the Belmont were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Whitman.

"Deburan" in the Belasco was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shearson, Mrs. J. B. Turner and Mr. A. B. Deane.

"Tip-Top" at the Globe Theatre was seen by Mr. and Mrs. Bache McE. Williams, Mrs. William Faversham, Mr. William Haywood Bell, Mrs. Charles E. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. McLane and Mr. John H. French.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. McHarg were at the Hippodrome to see "Good Times."

"OLE BILL" TO AID BOYS' CLUB. "Ole Bill," Bruce Blair's famous character, will appear at the New York Hippodrome next Sunday to aid the 1,600 little members of the Boys' Club, which is having its annual benefit entertainment that night. Charles D. Coburn, who brought Ole Bill to New York in "The Better Ole," has volunteered to appear at the benefit.

Charles D. Coburn, who brought Ole Bill to New York in "The Better Ole," has volunteered to appear at the benefit.

At the request of John Drinkwater, his new play will be entitled "The Little Theatre on the Bowery." The play is a comedy in which John Drinkwater satirizes the true life and matrimonial intolerance. George Reinhardt will appear in the sketch, which is scheduled for an early hearing on Broadway.

Announcement was made yesterday that Miss Eva Tanguay will appear at the Ritz-Carlton in the "The Little Theatre on the Bowery." The play is a comedy in which John Drinkwater satirizes the true life and matrimonial intolerance. George Reinhardt will appear in the sketch, which is scheduled for an early hearing on Broadway.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mrs. Margaret Schneider McConihe.

Mrs. Barrett Andrews.

SOON TO WED MISS TALMADGE. Buster Keaton Recovering From Injury. Soon Coming East.

Buster Keaton, screen comedian, is coming East from Los Angeles the latter part of April. It was learned yesterday, to arrange for his marriage with Miss Natalie Talmadge, youngest of the three sisters who are prominent on the screen. Keaton is convalescing after a fracture of a leg received while working on a picture a short time ago.

It will be the first time in three years that Miss Talmadge and Mr. Keaton, whose engagement was announced a few weeks ago, have seen each other. They met in Los Angeles when Miss Talmadge was general secretary to Roscoe (Patty) Arbuckle and Keaton was supporting the comedian. Then Miss Talmadge came East with her sisters, the Misses Norma and Constance, and has remained here since. Though no definite date has been set, it is expected that the wedding will take place in June.

AMONG THE PLAYGOERS. Mrs. Bradish Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., attended last night's performance of "Romance" in the Playhouse.

In the audience that saw "Miss Lulu Bett" at the Belmont were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Whitman.

"Deburan" in the Belasco was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shearson, Mrs. J. B. Turner and Mr. A. B. Deane.

"Tip-Top" at the Globe Theatre was seen by Mr. and Mrs. Bache McE. Williams, Mrs. William Faversham, Mr. William Haywood Bell, Mrs. Charles E. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. McLane and Mr. John H. French.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. McHarg were at the Hippodrome to see "Good Times."

"OLE BILL" TO AID BOYS' CLUB. "Ole Bill," Bruce Blair's famous character, will appear at the New York Hippodrome next Sunday to aid the 1,600 little members of the Boys' Club, which is having its annual benefit entertainment that night. Charles D. Coburn, who brought Ole Bill to New York in "The Better Ole," has volunteered to appear at the benefit.

Charles D. Coburn, who brought Ole Bill to New York in "The Better Ole," has volunteered to appear at the benefit.

At the request of John Drinkwater, his new play will be entitled "The Little Theatre on the Bowery." The play is a comedy in which John Drinkwater satirizes the true life and matrimonial intolerance. George Reinhardt will appear in the sketch, which is scheduled for an early hearing on Broadway.

Announcement was made yesterday that Miss Eva Tanguay will appear at the Ritz-Carlton in the "The Little Theatre on the Bowery." The play is a comedy in which John Drinkwater satirizes the true life and matrimonial intolerance. George Reinhardt will appear in the sketch, which is scheduled for an early hearing on Broadway.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

MISS DEANS TO BE MARRIED. Mrs. John Sterling Deans, formerly of Phoenixville, Pa., now of New York, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Deans, to Dr. John Taylor Howell, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John Taylor Howell of Newburgh, N. Y.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 8.—Mr. Edward Harris Metcalf, son of Mrs. L. Harris Metcalf, and Miss Winifred Winslow, daughter of Mrs. Homer Winslow of Buxton, England, were married in the Episcopal Church today. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip M. F. Sturges, rector. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf started for Miami for their honeymoon.

Mr. Winslow and his daughter arrived in New York on board the Aquitania last week for the marriage. He will return to England this week.

Old Furniture Sale Brings a Total of $19,608

Lowestoft Dinner Service in the Shippen-Burd Collection Sells for $320.

The final session in the sale of the historic Shippen-Burd collection of early American, English and French furniture and other effects from Philadelphia was held yesterday at the American Art Galleries and brought in $6,773. The grand total was $19,608. The furniture sold belonged to the Burd School for Orphan Girls, which was recently removed from its original site. The proceeds will go to a fund to help provide for the higher education of some of the pupils.

A beautiful Chinese Lowestoft porcelain dinner service, dating from the eighteenth century, sold to W. W. Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold to the same bidder. A set of four old Sheffield plated coasters, eighteenth century, was knocked down to Otto Bernick, agent, for $170. A pair of antique 1670, sold to Y. P. Croxon for $150.

W. H. Vanderpool gave $125 for two old mezzotints, "The Right Honorable Lady, Lady Mary Anne, Duchess of Marlborough," the latter by R. Purcell after Sir Joshua Reynolds. A pair of American glass candelabra, formerly the property of Gen. Ludlow, were sold to the same bidder for $100.

Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold to the same bidder. A set of four old Sheffield plated coasters, eighteenth century, was knocked down to Otto Bernick, agent, for $170. A pair of antique 1670, sold to Y. P. Croxon for $150.

W. H. Vanderpool gave $125 for two old mezzotints, "The Right Honorable Lady, Lady Mary Anne, Duchess of Marlborough," the latter by R. Purcell after Sir Joshua Reynolds. A pair of American glass candelabra, formerly the property of Gen. Ludlow, were sold to the same bidder for $100.

Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold to the same bidder. A set of four old Sheffield plated coasters, eighteenth century, was knocked down to Otto Bernick, agent, for $170. A pair of antique 1670, sold to Y. P. Croxon for $150.

W. H. Vanderpool gave $125 for two old mezzotints, "The Right Honorable Lady, Lady Mary Anne, Duchess of Marlborough," the latter by R. Purcell after Sir Joshua Reynolds. A pair of American glass candelabra, formerly the property of Gen. Ludlow, were sold to the same bidder for $100.

Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold to the same bidder. A set of four old Sheffield plated coasters, eighteenth century, was knocked down to Otto Bernick, agent, for $170. A pair of antique 1670, sold to Y. P. Croxon for $150.

W. H. Vanderpool gave $125 for two old mezzotints, "The Right Honorable Lady, Lady Mary Anne, Duchess of Marlborough," the latter by R. Purcell after Sir Joshua Reynolds. A pair of American glass candelabra, formerly the property of Gen. Ludlow, were sold to the same bidder for $100.

Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold to the same bidder. A set of four old Sheffield plated coasters, eighteenth century, was knocked down to Otto Bernick, agent, for $170. A pair of antique 1670, sold to Y. P. Croxon for $150.

W. H. Vanderpool gave $125 for two old mezzotints, "The Right Honorable Lady, Lady Mary Anne, Duchess of Marlborough," the latter by R. Purcell after Sir Joshua Reynolds. A pair of American glass candelabra, formerly the property of Gen. Ludlow, were sold to the same bidder for $100.

Seaman, agent for a private purchaser, for $320. The highest price of the afternoon. A portion of an eighteenth century Melsen porcelain coffee and dessert service went to the same bidder for $200, and an antique walnut side chair, dating from the year 1700 sold to the same for $145. Clapp & Graham purchased an early American silver plated candlestick and stand, dating from the middle of the nineteenth century, for $180.

A fine antique walnut armchair was sold to "Henry" for $175. W. T. W. T. paid $180 for a pair of old Chelsea candlesticks, also sold